

Worship Together - 12th July 2020

Welcome to our worship and communion service. I hope you are well and are continuing to notice God's protection and sustaining during these weeks.

Alan Beavis has prepared a message for us and will lead us in communion. Please have some bread and wine or juice ready for that part of the service.

I hope the songs and thoughts gathered here will help you worship and receive from God so that you can continue to be a witness of who he is and all he has done for us.

As you go through this sheet feel free to take time to pause and reflect or pray, sing your own songs, play instruments or even dance as you feel led.

We start by reading Psalm 19. This video was made by Richard Lyall. You may want to read it out loud or take turns reading out verses if you are with someone.

(Technical tip: you may want to put it to 'full screen' which is the icon at the bottom right of the video)

As we think about those words, we will sing

Song: Jesus lead us to the father

Our talk this morning is based on 1 Kings 3 where Solomon asks for wisdom.

1Corinthians 1 vs 18-25 speaks about God's wisdom shown in Jesus.

You can read that passage here or listen to the whole chapter here

Let's offer God our praise with these next two songs, remembering he works in ways we may not be able to understand or even see, but knowing he loves us.

Song: King of kings

Song: Waymaker

You may want to spend a few moments thanking God for his love, care and faithfulness now and during this last week. Maybe you could encourage someone by sharing one or two of those things you are thankful for.

These next two songs are songs of faith and hope. Let's sing out!

Song: Manifesto

Song: Those who hope

And now for this week's episode of 'Who wants to be a Millionaire'.
This a short sketch by Dave Hopwood to read and which you might like to act out.

Take a few moments to reflect on what has been said today. Is there something that you need to consider or do? Please do get in touch with the leaders if you want to discuss or pray about something with them.

As we come to our time of communion please make sure you have some bread and wine or juice ready with you, and let's sing of God's love and mercy.

Song: Before the throne

You may want to spend a few more moments in prayer and reflection. When you are ready we will sing:

Song: You are my vision

(Technical issue: this link should bring up a live version video with lyrics separately on the right that can be scrolled. There should also be a 'related video' underneath that has the lyrics on the actual video which you might find easier to use depending on your device.)

As we finish our service today let's say these words together, for ourselves, for each other, and for those we will be in contact with this week.

May the Grace of God uphold you,
the Peace of God surround you,
the Love of God flow from you and the Strength of God protect you.

May God's Word be in your heart.
May God's Word be on your lips.
May God's Word be in your touch.
May God's Word direct your feet.
On this day and all your days to come
May God's Word be the life you live.
